

Severena Seretha Aaron

March 12, 1933 - December 12, 2015

“Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing but a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised”. Proverbs 31:30

We cannot choose when our life begins or how or when it will end, but how we make the journey, “HE will be our guide to the end.” Psalm 48:14

Severena Seretha Aaron, the daughter of the late Otis Benton Aaron and Seretha Jewel Watson Aaron was born on March 12, 1933 in Camden, South Carolina. She was called from labor to reward on December 12, 2015 in Columbia, South Carolina.

She was an honor graduate of Mather Academy, Camden, South Carolina. She earned a Bachelor Arts Degree in Social Studies from Livingstone College, Salisbury, North Carolina. Severena completed further studies at Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts and Claflin University, Orangeburg, South Carolina. She was a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and National Association of University Women.

Severena was a Social Studies teacher in the public schools of South Carolina for seventeen (17) years. After leaving the teaching profession, she was employed with the Department of Juvenile Justice as a Community Specialist until her retirement in 1996.

Severena joined Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Camden, South Carolina at an early age. After moving to Columbia, South Carolina she joined Francis Burns United Methodist Church where she served faithfully in many capacities including: Communication Committee, Older Adult Ministry and Chairperson of the Pastor's Parish Relation Committee.

Severena was a caring and passionate family member and friend to many. She was always willing to share her time, talent and beautiful penmanship and gift of proofreading and writing excellent grammatically correct sentences. She leaves to cherish precious memories her brother, Otis B. Aaron, Jr. of Upper Marlboro, MD; an aunt, Vivian W. B. Swenson of Denver, CO; nephews; Zachery Aaron of Hyattsville, MD; Lloyd Thomas, III of Maryland; niece, Rhonda Aaron of Maryland; special cousin, Rosetta Watson and special friend, Alice Aaron of Hyattsville, MD; many other cousins, friends, former students and Department of Juvenile Justice clients.
