

Solomon Spann, Jr.

November 18, 1937 - September 26, 2018

Solomon Spann, Jr., transitioned into eternal life on Wednesday, September 26, 2018, at his residence in Columbia, South Carolina. Born November 18, 1937, in Columbia, he was a son of the late Solomon and Leila Cook Spann. He was educated in the public school system of Columbia, and was a member of Little Zion Baptist Church.

Solomon relocated to New York for many years and found employment as cement mason with the JB Eurell Construction Company, where he retired after years of dedicated service. Upon his retirement, he returned to Columbia. While a man of few words, Solomon was a man who loved deeply. An avid sports fan, he was in his element discussion sports trivia. He will be deeply missed.

Solomon leaves to cherish precious memories his wife, Gwendolyn Simmons Spann; his son, Solomon Spann, III; his grandson, Solomon Spann, IV; a sister, Mattie Spann Boykin; a nephew, William Boykin, IV; and numerous extended family members and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that you do intentional Acts of Kindness for your fellow man.
