

Susan Jackson

March 15, 1927 - October 20, 2016

Susan Jackson departed this earthly life on Thursday, October 29, 2016 at Palmetto Health Tuomey in Sumter. Born in Sumter County to the late Wilson Jackson Sr. and Amanda Gramison Jackson, she was a daughter of the late Amanda Gransion Jackson and Wilson Jackson, Sr.

Susan attended the public schools in Sumter County. Miss Jackson was a graduate of Morris College and received her Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education. After teaching public school in Thomasville, Georgia for 30 years, she relocated to Sumter and enjoyed substitute teaching in Hopkins, South Carolina.

At the beginning of each day she read the 23rd Psalm as a part of her daily meditation. In her leisure time, Susan enjoyed the art of canning. Friends and family members will dearly miss her loving gifts of labor, which included: pecans, peanuts, and pears

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her five sisters: Almeta Gayle, Edith Jackson, Hester J. Capers, Amanda J. Nelson, and Eloise Helton; six brothers: Eugene Jackson, Wilson Jackson, Jr., Wallace Jackson, Alexander Jackson, Alfair Jackson, and Clint Jackson.

She leaves to cherish precious memories a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

Jackson Family,

Please accept our condolences on the death of your loved one, Sister Susan Jackson. We know mere words may offer little comfort at this time, but know that our deepest feelings of sympathy lie with you and your family. Please take comfort in remembering those special times that you spent together. The promise of God in Psalm 73:24 is now fulfilled—“Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel and afterward receive me to glory.”

Please let the rest of your family know how sorry we are, and that we'll continue to keep you all in our thoughts and prayers.

With deepest sympathies,

Gregory J. Jackson, Sr.
