“ *To the McKnight Family,
It was an honor and privilege to have known Susan. She was a beautiful person who always wore a smile even in the worst of times, and she was often an inspiration to me for the way she made the best of her difficult situation in life. She reflected God's love with her Grace and Faith. I missed her funeral and celebration of life while I was caring for my mother who was hospitalized in New York. Frances and Carolina, you were very loyal and dedicated in your care for Susan. James, words cannot express my admiration for your love and care of your baby girl. To all of the McKnight Family, you are a very close and loving family. May God Bless You as you mourn the loss of your Beloved Susan. Love, Anne Jameson*
