“ Dear Pamela Harp,
Yesterday I learned of the unfortunate and untimely death of your son and my friend Tavaris. There are no words to describe the utter grief that I am feeling right now, and I cannot possibly imagine the shock and sorrow that has been thrust on your family as well. I will always remember fondly the laughs and tears he and I shared. It is true that he was taken from us too soon, and I think you share my sentiment that it feels a little unfair that such a strong and loyal young man's life has ended with so much living left to do. It is my firm belief that bad things that happen to good people serve a greater good, and Tee's death will, I believe, teach us all something if we only let ourselves be taught. Right now, we all are trudging through the mourning process, but with support from friends and family, I think we can find ourselves whole again. During this difficult time for your family, I would like to extend a helping hand if you will have it. I think of you two as a second family for me, so please don't hesitate to call me for any reason. One thing that I feel would honor his memory and help me through this process is if you would allow me to be there for you throughout this process. Please accept my sincerest condolences and know that I am here with you through it all if you need me.
Yours in mutual grief,
Gale Ragin McCoy

“ Deepest Condolences to the family of Tavaris Harp, no words can describe the grief and pain the family is going through right now. Just remember for everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven; a time to br born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing; Ecclesiastes 3:1-22 Rest on our brother, you will be missed....throttle hand up....Deepest Regards & Sympathy...Divine Divaz MC
