

Vergie Ray Clark Armstrong

December 12, 1930 - September 8, 2015

Vergie Ray Clark Armstrong departed this earthly life on Tuesday, September 8, 2015 at the Heartland of Columbia Nursing Facility. Born on December 12, 1930, in Batesburg, South Carolina, she was a daughter of the late Thomas and Gussie Scurry Clark.

Vergie dedicated her life as a witness of Jehovah for over forty years, serving faithfully doing Jehovah's will. Through the course of her faithful service, she demonstrated concern for not only the spiritual and physical well-being of her family, but also friends and co-workers.

Educated in the Batesburg public schools she later moved to Newark, New Jersey where she continued her commitment to further her education. She graduated as Class Valedictorian from Westside High School and completed further studies in the evening for dietary, nursing and secretarial programs. Education was very important to her. She was employed for over forty (40) years at Clara Maass Hospital in Newark, NJ. In her spare time, she was an excellent seamstress and also enjoyed crocheting and was an avid lover of flowers and gardening.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Luvenia Washington.

Mrs. Armstrong leaves to cherish precious memories, her devoted son, Johnnie Clark of Newark, NJ; five grandchildren: Elizabeth Clark of Newark, Melissa Clark of San Diego, Cal. and Jamal Hall of Bushkill, Pa; Lavella Jackson and John Washington, both also of Newark; five great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
